HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am 24 years old. For five years I have been going with a young man three years my senior. For a long time I loved him with all my heart and I thought I would never be happy unless he asked me to become his wife. At that time he called me the best little friend he ever had and said that if he ever married he hoped his wife would be as sweet as I. Last summer I met another young man who asked to come to see me. I did not like him at first, but he kept asking to come and so I let him. He cared so much for me and did so many thoughtful things that he made me get over my love for the other man and love him. When I told the other man that I was going to marry my new friend he said that it would simply kill him to have me. He said that he wanted me himself and that after going with him for five years he has a claim on me. I think he is wrong. What do you think?

BLUE EYES.
The man has no claim on you whatever. If he wanted you so much he should have taken you when he had a chance. I am sure that in all the time he went with you he never felt you had a claim on him.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am a girl 18 years old and will graduate from high school this June. I have a girl friend living in another town who is married and would like to send her one of my pictures. I do not want her to send me a present. Should I send the picture after graduation?

(2) Ought one of my announcements and name card accompany it, or should my picture and name card be together in one envelope and my announcement and another name card in a separate envelope?

(3) If it should be sent after graduation, how soon, or how soon if before?

(4) I have a married friend living in my home town. Should I send my picture to her or take it myself?

(5) Should any letter accompany the one which I am to send out of town?

(6) She would be less apt to give you a present if you sent the picture after graduation.

ice cream sociable yesterday afternoon and evening in the church chapel. A large number of people gave their patronage during the time and the ladies cleared a neat sum.

WOMAN'S GUILD ALL-DAY SESSION

The members of the Woman's Guild of South Park Presbyterian church gathered in the church yesterday for an all-day sewing session, spending the time busily working at quilts. At noon a picnic lunch was served.

MRS. CARLSON BIRTHDAY HOSTESS.

Mrs. P. J. Carlson in her home, 1320 Thirty-eighth street, yesterday entertained a party of ladies in celebration of her birthday anniversary. The game of cinch was played and the prizes were given to Mesdames John Wood, Daniel Green, William Walters, Nels Petersen and Ben Kelly. At 6 o'clock a four-course lunch was served, the table having cut flowers as its centerpiece, garden blossoms also trimming the rooms of the home. Mrs. Carlson was left with a number of pretty gifts.

DINNER IN SHERRARD HOME.

Members of the reception and publicity committees of the Rock Island Woman's club and other friends yesterday enjoyed the delightful hospitality of Miss Henrietta Sherrard, who had invited the ladies to her beautiful country home near Reynolds. The Rock Island ladies went in the late morning by interurban to the village, from where they had a delightful walk to the home of the hostess. At 12:30 an elaborate sumptuous dinner in many courses was served, with covers laid for 30, the guests including neighbors and other friends of the hostess besides the Rock Island ladies. In the center of the tables were silver baskets filled with lilies and on the cloth surrounding them were wreaths of sunflowers and pansies. The places were marked by hand-

(2) An announcement and card should be sent in a separate envelope.

(3) The announcement should be sent immediately after graduation. The picture could be sent at the same time or a few weeks later.

(4) Either way would be all right. If you see your friend often, take it to her.

(5) A letter is not necessary.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: A's mother and B's father are first cousins. What relation is A to B?

(2) Could A and B get married according to the laws of Wisconsin?

(3) B has proposed marriage, and although A loves B, A is rather backward about answering, for she has heard that when first cousins marry and have children, they are usually deformed.

What is your opinion? I wish you could advise me as to what to do.

(4) What will remove moles?

(5) I have a delicate shade of pink dress (silk). Could I clean it in gasoline, or would you advise me to have it cleaned?

(6) Will shoes be worn all summer? Also pumps?

(1) A and B are second cousins.

(2) There is no law which forbids second cousins marrying.

(3) It is not considered safe for first cousins to marry. I would not marry a second cousin without medical examinations. If a reliable physician assured me that neither my cousin nor I had tendencies I think I should marry him if I loved him.

(4) Nitric acid. Apply it with a little cotton batting on the end of a toothpick.

The result would be better if you had it cleaned. Gasoline, however, would not injure the silk.

(6) Both pumps and shoes will be worn all summer, as usual.

LADIES OF ELKS ENTERTAIN.

A largely attended meeting of the ladies of the Elks was held yesterday afternoon in the Elks' club room, the ladies spending the afternoon at games of 500, Mrs. Arthur Huesing and Miss Johnson taking favors in the games. Refreshments were served and the usual delightful time passed. The ladies will meet in special session the first Thursday in June.

LADIES OF COMMANDERY PARTY.

Sixty couples enjoyed the dancing party given last evening at Masonic temple by the ladies of Rock Island Commandery, Knights Templar. A fine musical program was given by the Criterion orchestra and every one had the best kind of a time. Light refreshments were served during the evening.

Miners Resume Negotiations.

Bellaire, Ohio, May 19.—Negotiations were resumed here today by the joint scale committee of the miners and operators from eastern Ohio in an effort to break the deadlock over certain sections of the new wage contract. At a convention of miners yesterday new instructions were given the scale committee representing the men but union officials admitted that these would permit the committee to concede only slightly from the original demands.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

THE TABLE

Chicken Stew With Brown Gravy—One-year-old plump chicken, one small onion, cut up chicken, taking any fat there is on it; fry in deep kettle, browning the onion, cut in thin slices; add teaspoonful flour and brown quite dark but not scorched; add chicken and when it has been turned and fried on both sides add enough water to cover and simmer till tender, make some nice dumplings and lay on top of chicken 20 minutes before dinner is ready; take up the dumplings and chicken, make a gravy with the browned stock and serve.

Red Cabbage Salad—Two small heads of red cabbage, one small bunch celery, pepper and salt, salad dressing. Chop or shred cabbage and celery; pour over it ice water enough to cover; let stand about one hour; drain well in a cheese cloth (the soaking in ice water removes the strong cabbage smell); add pepper and salt and mix with the salad dressing. Serve on lettuce leaves.

Raisin Stuffed Apples—Four medium sized apples, two tablespoons brown sugar, one teaspoon butter, one tablespoon raisins; wipe apples nice and clean, scoop out core and fill with the brown sugar, butter and raisins made to a paste with a grating of nutmeg added; do not add any water until well baked, when some can be added for a sauce, or use cream over them when eaten.

Hashed Browned Potatoes—Two cups of potatoes, chopped; one onion, one level tablespoon flour, pepper and salt, three tablespoons of cream or milk, one spoon lard and butter mixed; hash potatoes, onion, then sprinkle with the flour; season with salt and pepper, moisten with the cream and fry in the lard and butter; brown on one side and turn as an omelet.

Tomato Sauce—Chop one onion fine, brown in spider with a little butter. Add one teaspoon of flour and a little milk to form a thick paste. Now add slowly one can of tomato soup. Salt and pepper to taste. Cook for five minutes.
